

Portraits

At Bullard Photography, we have a different approach to portraits than what you're used to. Most portrait photographers have studied long and hard to learn to construct the "perfect pose." However, we believe that it's just as important to show your personality in your photos as it is to show what you look like. In order to make that happen, we try to capture you and your family truly being themselves. Our favorite way to do this is to watch you interact and have fun with each other in your home or a park or other non-traditional portrait settings.

We also offer more traditional portraits complete with backdrops and studio lighting in our in-home studio. Even in this setting we encourage you to be yourselves and have fun. After all, wouldn't you rather immortalize the emotional bond with your loved ones than just what their faces look like?

Other Ideas:

Storybook Albums

- A collection of images from one standard photo session, a Real Life Session, or a Through the Year Collection.

Price Varies by Type and Size of Storybook

Paintings

- Starting with one of our images, we painstakingly paint every detail using top of the line software. Our paintings are then printed directly onto fine art canvas in your choice of standard canvas or gallery wrap.

Commissions $350 Plus Price of Canvas

Greeting Cards

- Especially nice for Christmas, graduations, baby announcements, etc. Available in standard press-printed doubled-sided or folded cards as well as photo greeting cards in lustre, glossy or metallic paper.

Storybook Albums

We have a dilemma at our house - what to do with all the pictures. We have so many incredible pictures of our kids, but what happens when you run out of wall space? Do the previous favorites get relegated to the closet, never to be seen again?

Our solution is the Storybook Album. We love this option, because we no longer have to limit our choice to just a couple of favorites. These Storybooks are designed by hand with an average of three to five images per spread. They can be a collection of images from one standard photo session, a Real Life Session which involves an entire morning or afternoon with up to four locations, or a Through the Year Collection, which includes four sessions spread out through an entire year. (We've found the Through the Year Collection to be an incredible Christmas present for our children's grandparents! They love being able to take it with them everywhere they go!)

All our Storybooks are available in either a linen or leather cover and come with several choices of cover color and sheet styles. You have the option of an image on the front cover as well as a foil-stamped title on the front.

Greeting Cards

Greeting cards are a great way to share a little bit of your family with friends and loved ones. They're especially great for Christmas, graduation, and baby announcements - the possibilities are endless.

We offer several styles of greeting cards and are limited in design only by our imagination. Press-printed cards are folded and have front, back, and two inside pages to design. Photo greeting cards are printed on photographic paper and are front side only. The exact size of the card will be determined by the design of the card.

All styles and sizes of cards come with envelopes. Press-printed cards can only be ordered in lots of 24. Photo greeting cards have a minimum of 25 with additional cards sold in multiples of 5.
